BIO

Daniella Schneider joined MAK to pursue her interest in family and matrimonial law. Prior to joining the firm, Daniella worked in litigation in both big law and a litigation boutique, where she developed a strong background in commercial litigation, as well as extensive knowledge of the application of e-discovery and analytics to litigation practice.

Daniella obtained her J.D. degree from The Georgetown University Law Center, where she served as an Executive Editor of The International Environmental Law Review. She attended The George Washington University as an undergraduate and received a B.A. in Journalism and Mass Communication. Daniella is admitted in both state and federal courts in New York.

Daniella lives with her husband in downtown Manhattan.
