

New York Law Journal

June 25, 2024

Attorneys 'On the Move': Pryor Cashman Adds White Collar Partner; SEC Enforcement Attorney Joins Cozen O'Connor

And other announcements of recent hirings and promotions of New York attorneys.

Patricia Kane
Associate Editor

- Loeb & Loeb has added Yael Fuchs as a partner in the firm's nonprofit and tax-exempt organizations practice. He was former co-chief of the enforcement section of the New York Attorney General's Charities Bureau.
- Pryor Cashman has added Jasmine Juteau as a partner to its white collar defense + investigations and regulatory enforcement + securities litigation teams. She joins from Morvillo Abramowitz Grand Iason & Anello where she was counsel.
- Kramer Levin has added Robert (Bodie) Stewart as a partner in its special situations practice and corporate department. He joins from the restructuring group at Davis Polk & Wardwell where he was counsel.
- Jonathan Kortmansky and Douglas Curran have joined Anderson Kill as shareholders and co-chairs of the firm's financial litigation & complex disputes practice group.
- The attorneys and staff of Cronin, Harris & Associates have joined Forchelli Deegan Terrana. CHA's senior partner, Laureen Harris, will continue as such at FDT.
- Securities enforcement regulatory attorney Alexander Cohen has joined Cozen O'Connor as a member in the firm's securities litigation & SEC enforcement practice. He was formerly with Sidley Austin.

- Alison O'Dwyer has been appointed chair of Fullerton Beck's medical malpractice group.
- Offit Kurman has added Caryn Keppler as a principal in the firm's estates and trusts practice group.
- DLA Piper has hired entertainment and advertising attorneys Stacy Marcus and Michael Isselin as partners in the firm's trademark, copyright & media practice.
- Katie Weiss and Martin Eid have rejoined King & Spalding as partners in the firm's finance and restructuring practice group. They join from Milbank. Prior to that, they were both partners at King & Spalding.
- Rivkin Radler partner Henry Mascia has been appointed chairperson of the New York State Bar Association Committee on Courts of Appellate Jurisdiction. He will serve a three-year term.
- Lowenstein Sandler has added Abraham Kwon as a partner to the firm's emerging companies & venture capital (ECVC) practice group. He was previously with Cooley.
- Andrew Bauer has joined Schwartz Sladkus Reich Greenberg Atlas as a partner. He formerly served as deputy general counsel and corporate secretary to Pagaya Technologies.
- Edward Rojas has rejoined Holland & Knight in the firm's public finance team as a partner. He was an attorney at the firm from 2016-2021. He joins from Harris Beach where he was also partner.
- Ashlie Alaman has joined CleanArc as senior vice president of legal and general counsel. Most recently, she served as associate general counsel at Marathon Digital Holdings.
- Polsinelli has added Vasiliki Yiannoulis as a shareholder to its real estate practice. Rosenberg & Estis has promoted Jeanine Floyd from counsel to member, and Stephen Millington from associate to counsel.
- Krystal Armstrong and Spencer Serling have joined Rivkin Radler as associates in the firm's Uniondale and New York City offices, respectively.